AFFAIRS IN BROOKLYN.

DR. TALMAGE SAYS HE WILL RESIGN.

The expectation that Dr. Talmage would leave if the floating indebtedness upon the new Tabernacle in Clinton ave. was not paid bids fair to be realized, as he made the positive announcement yesterday that he would resign next Sunday unless the financial stress of the church was relieved. The trustees have been at work for months to scale down the floating debt, which has been figured at different ment has been made that the creditors are willing to take 50 per cent of the amounts due them. Dr. Taimage offered to give $10,000 if $60,000 were raised. The mortgage upon the Tabernacie is $125,000, held by Russell Sage, and secured by an insurance policy on Dr. Taimage's life. The total indebtedness was placed at $700.000 ke. es from 889,000 to 8125,000, and the announce-

Testimony was taken by Surrogate Abbott yesteron the point whether Dorothy Annan, two years old, daughter of the late Major Adward Annan, jr., shall be brought up by her maternal grandfather, Eugene M. Earle, of Richfield Springs, who is a an Catholic, and his wife, or by the paternal grandfather, Edward Annan, of No. 201 Washington
Park, and his daughter, Mrs. Charlotte S. Richardson,
The City Clerk will furnish an official envelope grandfather, Edward Annan, of No. 201 Washington Park, and his daughter, Mrs. Charlotte S. Richardson, who are Protestants. When young Mr. Annan married the daughter of Mr. Earle, who is proprietor of the Hotel Earlington, at Richfield Springs, and the Hotel Earlington, at Richfield Springs, and the Hotel Bristol, in New-York, he made an antenuptual agreement that their children should be brought up in the faith of the mother, and she should follow it without hindrance. The child was paptized in 1890 by a Roman Catholic priest at Richfield Springs. 1890 by a Roman Catholic priest at Richfield Springs. Mrs. Annan died in 1891 and her husband died last

THE PUGILIST WEPT IN COURT.

Eddie Avery, a "bantam-weight" pugilist, was charged in the Lee Avenue Police Court yesterday beating his wife, and, after pleading guilty. begget for mercy and cried bitterly. Avery married low, Dr. Henry R. Baldwin and Benjamin F. Howell an eighteen-year-old girl in June last, and she says sitting as commissioners appointed by the Chan he has beaten her with more or less regularity coller, and a jury of tweive men, was enactly stance. On Wednesday night Avery arrived at his home, No. 135 Berry-st., much intoxicated, and beat his wife. She fled for protection to her mother, who lives at No. 131 Berry-st., and Avery followed. He lives at No. 131 Berry-st., and Avery followed. He old age and personal habits, rather than to his old age and personal habits, rather than to his endeavored to get into the house, and was highly indignant when admission was refused him. The young boxer announced at the top of his lungs that he yearned for bloodshed, but Policeman Hotehkiss came along and marched him off to jail.

Yesterday morning Mrs. Avery preferred a charge of assault against the pugilist, but afterward with-drew it. Justice Goetting lectured the young man, and finally, at the wife's request, suspended sentence.

CHASING A COW WITH A ROWBOAT.

Half a dozen men in a boat spent a good part of River. The animal belonged to Charles Anderson, a Anderson got a rowboat and followed. The cow the boat with a rush, although Anderson made an ineffectual effort to lasso her. The animal was finally captured, but it took the combined strength of ten men to drag her out of the water.

GATHERED ABOUT THE TOWN.

Bishop Hood delivered an address before the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Conference yesterday in the Blanks were sent out to the presidents of the Republican ward associations yesterday for the enrolment committees of the election districts to provide for the primaries to be held on Tuesday next. Bishop McDonnell is said to be seriously considering the project of completing the Cathedral of the Im-maculate Conception. The walls have stood in an unfinished state for a quarter of a century. The closing entertainment of the season of 1892-

93 in the Department of Music of the Brooklyn Institute will be a free organ recital by R. Huntington Woodman and a vocal accompaniment by Royal Stone Smith at the New-York Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church this evening.

James E. Bowles, of No. 175 Sands-st., was arrested yesterday upon a charge of robbing houses under the pretence that he was an inspector of the City Works Department. Some partially melted silver was found in his rooms.

A dinner was given last evening at the Clarendon Hotel in honor of Alfred C. Burton, city editor of "The Brooklyn Eagle," who has been connected with the paper for a score of years. The members of the editorial and city staffs of the paper were present. William B. Green was toastmaster, and called on William Walton to propose the health of the guest, who responded happily to Mr. Walton's felicitous words. Other speeches were made by St. Clair Mc-Kelway, Robert A. Burch, Charles M. Skinner, James M. Wood, F. Dana Reed, William Herries, George F. Dobson, A. B. Atkins and others.

Policeman Peter Dalton, of the Nineteenth Precinct, was warmly commended by Captain Campbell yesterday for saving the life of Jerome Hefferman, of No. 14 Judge-st. About 1 o'clock in the morning, while patrolling near the Grand-st. bridge, Dalton heard cries and saw a man struggling in the water. He threw him a life-line, lowered a ladder and managed to draw Hefferman out of the river.

A LAWYER PROTESTS AGAINST HIS ARREST. Everett D. Barlow, a lawyer of No. 266 Broadway, who was arrested Wednesday on an order signed by Justice Andrews, of the Supreme Court, charging him with converting property of the Phoenix Manufactur-ing Company, of Taunton, Mass., valued at $2,500, yesterday made the following statement: "An order of arrest was obtained in the suit of the Phoenix Manufacturing Corporation against me on a purely one-sided statement of the facts, and considerable publicity has been given to the matter based upon tals one-sided or ex-parte statement. I at once gave ample bonds pending a trial, when opportunity will be allowed for a hearing of my side of this case. It is not lawyer-like or proper for me at this time to try my case in the columns of the daily papers. I shall be obliged, therefore, for the present to shaply state that upon the trial of this case before a jury I can successfully refute all of the charges of impropriety or irregularity on my part, and show not only that the order of arrest was antwarranted, but that the entire proceedings against me were an outrage." upon this one-sided or ex-parte statement. I at once

A LARGE REWARD FOR DIAMONDS.

The following advertisement, which appeared yesterday, caused considerable comment: "Two thousand dollars reward for return of diamond earrings. lost probably on train between New-York, New-London and Norwich, Conn., May 1; they are white stones, weigh about 41.2 carats each, and valued as keep-sakes. Tiffany & Co., Union Square, New-York City." A representative of the firm of Tiffany & Co., who was seen yesterday afternoon by a Tribune reporter refused to explain the advertisement or say who had He referred the reporter to Detective Sergeant Titus, of the Detective Bureau, at Police Headquarters. At the Detective Bureau it was said that Detective-Sergeant Titus was out of town. An official on duty, bowever, declared that there was nothing unusual about the case. The earrings had been dropped, in all probability, he added. The detectives had been asked to look out for the gems. The loss was reported to inspector Byrnes a week ago. No trace of the jewels has been found.

The tugboat A. D. Carver, having the three-masted achooner Greenleaf in tow, ran on the rocks at Hell Gate at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The schooner followed the tug upon the rocks. The damage to the boats is unknown.

NEWS FROM NEW-JERSEY

JERSEY CITY.

Charges have several times been made against the managers of the Catholic Cemetery to the effect that they allow bodies to remain unburied until the receiving vaults will hold no more, and that the bodie are then stored in a stable on the grounds. Re-cently the case was reported to the County Board of Health, whose officers yesterday made an investiga-tion. The cemetery officers say that, owing to the nature of the soil, they cannot inter bodies after heavy rainfall. The graves fill with water wherever on Dr. Talmage's life. The total indebtedness was placed at $200,000 last winter.

Dr. Talmage said yesterday: "I have decided to resign my pulpit next Sunday unless the Hoating debt of the church is provided for by that time. This decision is positive and final. It is no basty conclusion, but has been arrived at after mature and prayerful consideration of the Tabernacle's situation. In fact I can no longer bear the strain and must refleve myself from it. It is not because I wish to leave from my wish, and my heart and life and work have been so bound up in that it was not because I wish to leave my fermion of the foreman Robert Stuart, one of the direction of the foreman Robert Stuart, one of the direction of the foreman Robert Stuart,

C. A. SCHERMERHORN'S LEG BROKEN.

Charles Augustus Schermerhorn, treasurer of the vard, suffering from a broken leg, and an attack of pleurisy. On the evening of May 8, when the society entertained the officers of the Van Speija, at the Hotel de Logerot, the members observed one o the organization's time-honored customs known n "chairing." In the course of the ceremony, a popula comrade is placed in an armchair, and the is carried about the room on the shoulders of half dozen sturdy members. Several guests and mem bers had been carried about in the chair withou necident, but when Mr. Schermerhorn was placed in the chair it is said that he struggled. It is not known exactly how the accident occurred. Mr. Schermer horn, however, was thrown or fell out of the chair When a physician examined him it was found that his left leg was broken in three places, and that his ankle was dislocated. He was removed to his hom and was doing nicely until pleurisy set in on Toes For a day or two the injured man, according to his friends, was in a critical condition. A Tribane reporter was told at the none of the sick man vester day that he was now in no dancer, and was getting along as well as could be expected.

A HAT FACTORY AT YONKERS BURNED. The establishment of the Yonkers Hat Manufactur ing Company was completely destroyed by fire at Yonkers yesterday morning. The flames, which were discovered at 6:15 o'clock, originated in the bandbox room on the top floor where there was neither fire or light of any kind. The loss to the company on stock, machinery, etc., will probably reach $40,000, which is almost covered by in surance. The greatest loss to the company will be from stoppage of business as the trade is busy at present and the factory was running night and day. There were 600 hands employed, and all will be thrown out of work. The firm, however, intends to start up ngain as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made.

The building was totally destroyed. It belonged to fife Shelhar estate, was valued at $8,000, and was fully insured.
